NEERIM DISTRICT HEALTH SERVICE

By remembering the Neerim District Health Service in your Will, you help to continue our tradition of providing health care and services to current and future generations.

A bequest is the ultimate gift and could be your way of expressing your affection and gratitude to the health service and our community.

A bequest in your Will is a simple but very powerful way to provide us with support with little or no impact on your lifestyle today.

There are several different ways you can remember us in your Will. Detailed below are three choices you have when making a gift to our health service. We suggest that you discuss them with your solicitor:

A residuary bequest:

This is simply a gift of whatever is left of your estate, or a percentage thereof, after all your other gifts, taxes and debts have been fulfilled. This sort of bequest keeps its value regardless of inflation over the years. It means that the gift you include to us is worth just as much when the time comes and should read as follows:-

I give to the Neerim District Health Service free from all duties, the following percentage OR the remainder of my estate and I direct that the receipt of the Chief Executive Officer for the time being will be a sufficient discharge to my trustees:-

A pecuniary bequest:

Pecuniary bequests refer to leaving a gift of a set dollar amount determined by you at the time of preparing your Will and should read as follows:

I give to the Neerim District Health Service free from all duties, the following amount $ and I direct that the receipt of the Chief Executive Officer for the time being will be a sufficient discharge to my trustees.

A specific bequest:

If you so decide, you could leave a specific item of value to the Neerim District Health Service which can be used to generate funds. This should read as follows:

I give to the Neerim District Health Service free from all duties, the following items: and I direct that the receipt of the Chief Executive Officer for the time being will be a sufficient discharge to my trustees.
